Gmail

Khalid mahomed khan <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com>

FW: EC-21XR-1QN5N6 Fw: Pending documents - VODACOMDIREC

10 messages

srm <srm@vodacom.co.za> Thu, Jan 15, 2026 at 11:13 AM
To: "khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com" <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com>

Dear Mr. Khan

Thank you for taking my call earlier.
As discussed, the matter is currently in hand with me. I am following up and will keep you updated on any developments.

Regards
Thato Makoti
Expert Resolution Centre
CEO`S Office
Commercial Park, Midrand

vodacom.co.za

Further Together

Get Outlook for iOS

From: Khalid mahomed khan
Sent: Monday, December 15, 2025 10:44 AM
To: Amanda Mzimela ; CEO ; Vodacom Media Relations ; Vodacom IR ; Vodacom Company Secretary ; consumer@icasa.org.za ; Vodacom Customer Service
Subject: Re: Pending documents - VODACOMDIREC-0004595182

You don't often get email from khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com. Learn why this is important
External Email: Don?t click links or open attachments unless you trust the sender. Unsure? Please use the Report button.
Dear Amanda and Vodacom Complaints Team,

I am lodging a formal complaint regarding Vodacom's failure to honour a Black Friday cellphone deal (Reference: VODACOMDIREC-0004595182) that I applied for on November 29, 2025.

I fully complied with all application requirements and received written confirmation that my documents were successfully uploaded and received, only to have the deal retroactively withdrawn three weeks later due to an alleged "internal vetting failure."

Timeline and Facts:

1. November 29, 2025: Applied for the Black Friday deal and submitted all required documentation.
2. December 4, 2025: Received written confirmation from Vodacom (Amanda Mzimela) that: "The document(s) have been successfully uploaded on our system. You will be notified about the status of your application via SMS."
3. Subsequently: After repeated follow-ups over three weeks, I was informed that "something went wrong during vetting" and the deal is no longer available.

No rejection reason, vetting failure, or missing documentation was communicated to me in writing prior to this withdrawal.

Consumer Protection Act (CPA) Concerns:

Vodacom's actions suggest a breach of the CPA, 68 of 2008, specifically regarding:

- Section 41 (False, misleading or deceptive representations): I was led to believe my application was valid and progressing by the December 4 confirmation. Withdrawing the offer due to an internal issue constitutes a misleading representation.
- Section 19 (Consumer?s right to timely performance): A three-week delay with no decision, followed by a retroactive withdrawal, constitutes an unreasonable delay and penalises the consumer for Vodacom's procedural failure.

I accepted the advertised promotion in good faith, and my application documents confirm I have a clean credit record, permanent employment, and a verifiable residential address.

Resolution Required:

I require one of the following two outcomes within five business days:

1. Honour the original Black Friday deal as applied for under Reference: VODACOMDIREC-0004595182; or
2. Provide a written, CPA-compliant explanation clearly stating the lawful basis for rejecting the application, including the specific, unmet vetting criteria.

Should this matter not be resolved within the stated timeframe, I will escalate this formal complaint to the National Consumer Commission (NCC) and ICASA. I will also publicly share the full interaction and supporting evidence across social media and consumer review channels to highlight Vodacom?s handling of this promotion.

I trust this matter will be resolved promptly and professionally.

Regards,

Khalid Mahomed Khan
083 261 3305
Hi, its been 2 weeks, and I'm not sure why my application is not approved yet.

Please provide be a reason for the delay

Khalid
0832613305

On Thu, 4 Dec 2025, 9:28?am Amanda Mzimela, > wrote:
Hi Khalid Mahomed Khan,

Ticket: https://cbuadmin.coactivate.co.za/helpdesk/tickets/291854

The document(s) have been successfully uploaded on our system. You will be notified about the status of your application via SMS. If approved, kindly contact the Vodacom Sales Department on 08217844 or 0821950 to complete the order.

Regards,
Amanda Mzimela.

On Tue, 2 Dec at 4:52 PM , Khalid mahomed khan > wrote:

---------- Forwarded message ---------
From: Khalid mahomed khan >
Date: Sat, Nov 29, 2025 at 12:12?PM
Subject: VODACOMDIREC-0004595182
To: >

_____
This message contains confidential information and is intended only for the individual(s) addressed in the message. If you are not the named addressee, you should not disseminate, distribute, or copy this e-mail. If you are not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that disclosing, distributing, or copying this e-mail is strictly prohibited.
291854:545090

C2 General

Khalid mahomed khan <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com> Thu, Jan 15, 2026 at 11:59 AM
To: srm <srm@vodacom.co.za>

Hi Thato,

Thanks for the call and the update.

I look forward to hearing from you soon regarding the resolution.

Regards,

Khalid
083 261 3305
[Quoted text hidden]

Khalid mahomed khan <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com> Wed, Jan 21, 2026 at 2:12 PM
To: srm <srm@vodacom.co.za>

Hi Thato,

I am following up on our recent correspondence.

This appears to be a recurring pattern where I am contacted—including two phone calls in December—only for the matter to go quiet - feels like a stalling tactic? I have been patient, but I am no longer willing to wait indefinitely.

If this is not resolved by COB tomorrow, I will proceed with a formal complaint to the National Consumer Commission and share my experience across all social media platforms regarding these unfair business practices. As previously discussed, I bypassed numerous other Black Friday offers to choose this deal with Vodacom. Because of the delays and eventual withdrawal, I have now lost the opportunity to benefit from any of those alternative offers.

I look forward to your urgent resolution.

Regards,

Khalid Mahomed Khan
083 261 3305
[Quoted text hidden]

Khalid mahomed khan <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com> Wed, Jan 21, 2026 at 2:17 PM
To: ceo@vodacom.co.za, vodacomir@vodacom.co.za, mediarelations@vodacom.co.za, Amanda Mzimela <vadmin@coactivate.co.za>, srm <srm@vodacom.co.za>, customercare@vodacom.co.za

---------- Forwarded message ---------
From: Khalid mahomed khan <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com>
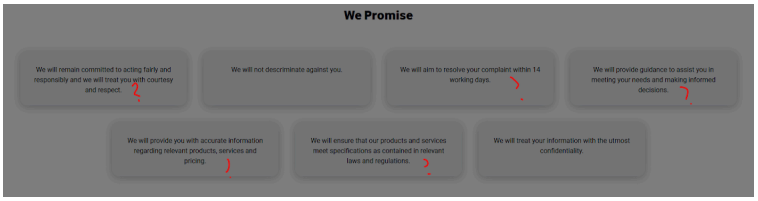
Date: Wed, Jan 21, 2026 at 2:12 PM
Subject: Re: FW: EC-21XR-1QN5N6 Fw: Pending documents - VODACOMDIREC
To: srm <srm@vodacom.co.za>

Hi Thato,

I am following up on our recent correspondence.

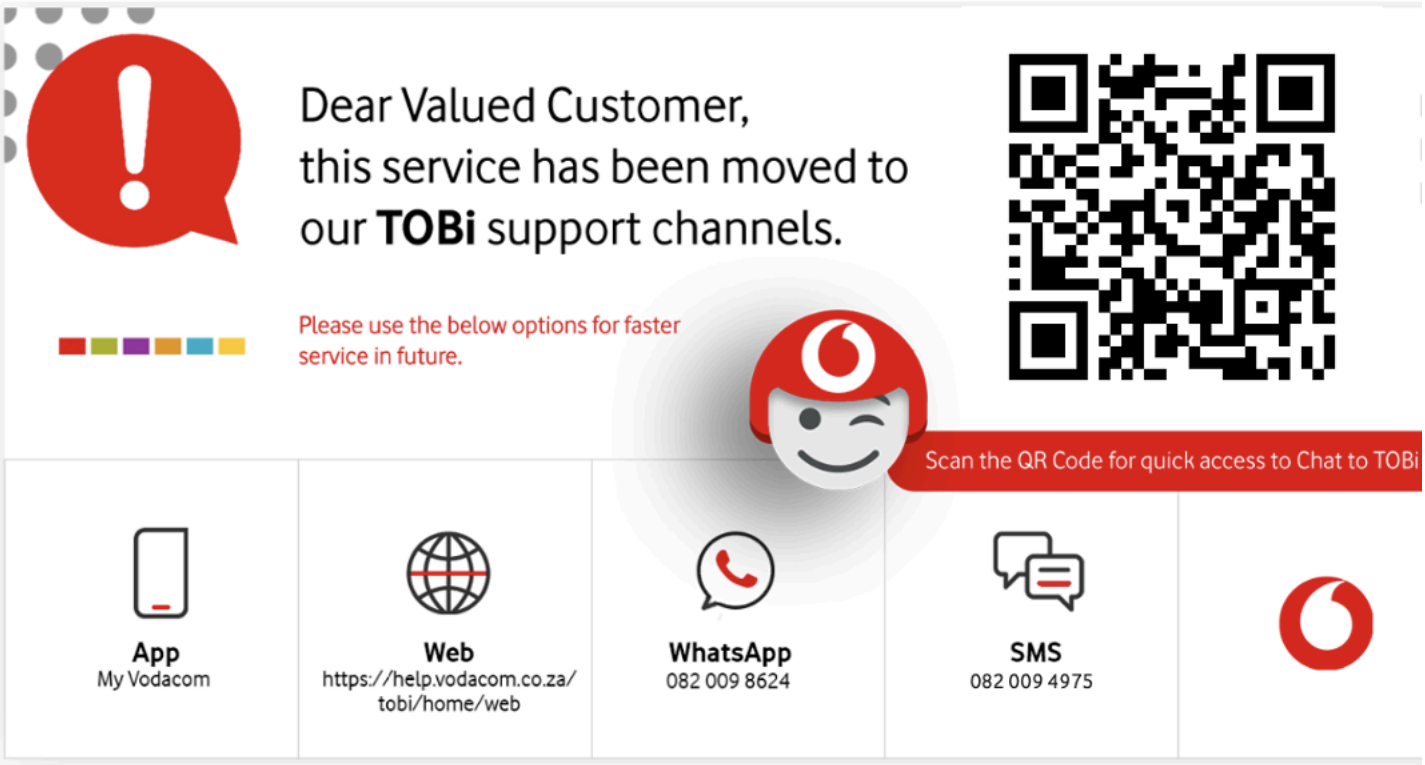
This appears to be a recurring pattern where I am contacted—including two phone calls in December—only for the matter to go quiet - feels like a stalling tactic? I have been patient, but I am no longer willing to wait indefinitely.

If this is not resolved by COB tomorrow, I will proceed with a formal complaint to the National Consumer Commission and share my experience across all social media platforms regarding these unfair business practices. As previously discussed, I bypassed numerous other Black Friday offers to choose this deal with Vodacom. Because of the delays and eventual withdrawal, I have now lost the opportunity to benefit from any of those alternative offers.



[Quoted text hidden]
[Quoted text hidden]

Customer Care <customercare@vodacomsa.mypurecloud.ie> Wed, Jan 21, 202
Reply-To: customercare@vodacomsa.mypurecloud.ie
To: Khalid mahomed khan <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com>



Amanda Mzimela <vadmin@coactivate.co.za> Thu, Jan 22, 2026 at 9:39 AM
Reply-To: Amanda Mzimela <vadmin@coactivate.co.za>
To: khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com
Cc: ceo@vodacom.co.za, vodacomir@vodacom.co.za, mediarelations@vodacom.co.za, srm@vodacom.co.za, customercare@vodacom.co.za

Hi Khalid Mahomed Khan,

Ticket: https://cbuadmin.coactivate.co.za/helpdesk/tickets/296853

Kindly note that the deal you applied for formed part of our Black Friday promotion and is no longer available.

Upon review of your profile, it reflects a potential client status with no active deals or orders currently linked; therefore, we are unable to assess or confirm eligibility for high-end deals or packages at this time.

Furthermore, an internal vetting error occurred during the processing of your application. Regrettably, this is beyond our control and cannot be overridden. You are, however, welcome to consider alternative deals, and a consultant will be pleased to assist you with the reapplication process.

We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience caused and thank you for your understanding.

Regards,
Amanda Mzimela.
[Quoted text hidden]

Khalid mahomed khan <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com> Thu, Jan 22, 2026 at 10:07 AM
To: Amanda Mzimela <vadmin@coactivate.co.za>

Dear Amanda and the Vodacom Executive Team,

Your recent response is completely unacceptable. To suggest that I should simply "consider alternative deals" because of your own internal vetting failure is an insult to me as a consumer.

I urge you to review the history of this matter immediately. Your own records confirm that my documentation was successfully uploaded on December 4, and I was led to believe my application was progressing. By your own admission, the failure to process this deal was an internal error on your part. Attempting to absolve yourselves of responsibility by claiming this is "beyond your control" is both unprofessional and a blatant disregard for the Consumer Protection Act.

I have already lost the opportunity to take advantage of other Black Friday offers while waiting for Vodacom to resolve its internal incompetence. I will not be penalized for your procedural failures.

This is your final notice. If the original deal (Reference: VODACOMDIREC-0004595182) is not honored, I will proceed with a formal complaint to the National Consumer Commission (NCC) and ICASA. Furthermore, I will ensure that the full details of this interaction and Vodacom's deceptive business practices are shared across all social media and consumer review platforms.

I expect an appropriate resolution immediately.

Khalid Mahomed Khan
083 261 3305

[Quoted text hidden]

Khalid mahomed khan <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com> Thu, Jan 22, 2026 at 10:08 AM
To: Amanda Mzimela <vadmin@coactivate.co.za>
Cc: ceo@vodacom.co.za, vodacomir@vodacom.co.za, mediarelations@vodacom.co.za, srm@vodacom.co.za, customercare@vodacom.co.za

Dear Amanda and the Vodacom Executive Team,

Your recent response is completely unacceptable. To suggest that I should simply "consider alternative deals" because of your own internal vetting failure is an insult to me as a consumer.

I urge you to review the history of this matter immediately. Your own records confirm that my documentation was successfully uploaded on December 4, and I was led to believe my application was progressing. By your own admission, the failure to process this deal was an internal error on your part. Attempting to absolve yourselves of responsibility by claiming this is "beyond your control" is both unprofessional and a blatant disregard for the Consumer Protection Act.

I have already lost the opportunity to take advantage of other Black Friday offers while waiting for Vodacom to resolve its internal incompetence. I will not be penalized for your procedural failures.

This is your final notice. If the original deal (Reference: VODACOMDIREC-0004595182) is not honored, I will proceed with a formal complaint to the National Consumer Commission (NCC) and ICASA. Furthermore, I will ensure that the full details of this interaction and Vodacom's deceptive business practices are shared across all social media and consumer review platforms.

I expect an appropriate resolution immediately.

Khalid Mahomed Khan
083 261 3305
[Quoted text hidden]

Debbie Coetzer <vadmin@coactivate.co.za> Fri, Jan 23, 2026 at 1:55 PM
Reply-To: Debbie Coetzer <vadmin@coactivate.co.za>
To: khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com
Cc: ceo@vodacom.co.za, vodacomir@vodacom.co.za, mediarelations@vodacom.co.za, srm@vodacom.co.za, customercare@vodacom.co.za

Hi Khalid mahomed khan,

Ticket: https://cbuadmin.coactivate.co.za/helpdesk/tickets/296853

Please find out terms and conditions.

https://www.vodacom.co.za/vodacom/terms/terms-and-conditions?icmp=Home/Footer/TermsAndConditions
[Quoted text hidden]

Khalid mahomed khan <khalid.mahomed.khan@gmail.com> Fri, Jan 23, 2026 at 2:13 PM
To: Debbie Coetzer <vadmin@coactivate.co.za>
Cc: ceo@vodacom.co.za, vodacomir@vodacom.co.za, mediarelations@vodacom.co.za, srm@vodacom.co.za, customercare@vodacom.co.za

Dear Debbie and Vodacom Executive Team,

I've received your email with a link to Vodacom's general terms and conditions. No explanation. No context. No indication of which clause you think applies here. Just a link.

I'm not sure what you expected me to do with that, but I'll be honest — it comes across as an attempt to bury me in legal jargon and hope I go away. That's not going to happen.

I've taken the time to read through your full Contract Terms and Conditions. I'm guessing you're pointing me to Clause 1.3 — the one that says offers are "valid while stocks last" and that Vodacom can "alter or withdraw deals without notice."

Here's the problem: that clause doesn't help you.

Your own reason was an "internal vetting error" — not stock

Go back and read Amanda's email from 22 January. She said, and I quote, that "an internal vetting error occurred during the processing of your application." Nobody at Vodacom has ever suggested this deal was withdrawn because of stock availability. You can't now turn around and rely on a "while stocks last" clause when your own people have already admitted the real reason was a system failure on your end.

You can't hide behind T&Cs when the law says otherwise

Look, I understand that companies put all sorts of clauses in their terms and conditions. But here's the thing — those clauses don't override the Consumer Protection Act. And the CPA has quite a lot to say about what Vodacom has done here:

- Section 48 says suppliers can't use contract terms to escape liability for unfair conduct. Accepting my application, confirming my documents were received, sitting on it for three weeks, and then pulling the offer because of your own internal error? That's textbook unfair conduct.
- Section 49 says if you want to rely on terms that limit my rights, you need to bring them to my attention properly — at the time of the transaction, not by sending me a random link weeks later after everything has gone wrong.
- Section 41 says you can't mislead consumers. On 4 December, Amanda told me my documents were "successfully uploaded" and I'd be notified of my application status. That created a clear expectation that everything was in order. Three weeks of silence followed by "sorry, internal error, deal's off" is misleading, plain and simple.
- Section 19 says I'm entitled to timely performance. Three weeks of delays followed by a withdrawal isn't timely — it's the opposite.

You can't benefit from your own mistake

This is pretty basic stuff. Vodacom's vetting system failed. That's Vodacom's problem, not mine. You don't get to pass the consequences of your own internal failures onto your customers and then point to the fine print as if that makes it okay.

I've lost out because of this

I want to be clear about something: I specifically chose this Vodacom deal over other Black Friday offers from your competitors. I passed on those because I was waiting for Vodacom to process my application. Now those offers are long gone. I can't get them back. That's a direct consequence of how Vodacom has handled this.

What happens next

I need one of two things from Vodacom:

1. Honour the original deal I applied for (Reference: VODACOMDIREC-0004595182), or
2. Give me a proper, written explanation — not a link, an actual explanation — of the specific legal basis for rejecting my application, and how that basis holds up against the CPA sections I've mentioned above.

Sending me a link to your T&Cs with nothing else is not a response. It's an attempt to make this go away without actually addressing anything. I expect better from a company of Vodacom's size and reputation.

If I don't have a proper resolution, I will:

- File a formal complaint with the National Consumer Commission
- File a complaint with ICASA
- Share the full story of this experience — including all the emails and Vodacom's attempts to fob me off with T&C links — on social media and consumer review sites
- Consider whatever further legal options are available to me

I've been patient. I've been reasonable. I've given Vodacom multiple opportunities to sort this out. But my patience has run out.

I look forward to your response.

Regards,

Khalid Mahomed Khan
083 261 3305
[Quoted text hidden]